Lady Wave over Beech in district basketball championship game. Great game for both teams. Mt Juliet girls at Gallatin in opening game of Regional tourney. Gallatin won their District for the first time in many years. Congratulations. Panthers boys and girls basketball teams headed to region according to sports reports from Tommy Crafton. Portland hosted Region tourney game!!! Portland boys win their First game in District tourney.

Lady Vols back in the groove. Big win over Mississippi State. Tennessee announcing a new voice for the Lady Vols. A very important position. It is the largest women's network in the Sec. Tough time for Lady Vols against LSU. Full house in Knoxville. What a finish. LSU, Vols fought all the way. Heartbreaking loss after a fantastic finish. Sec tourney in Nashville now. Check out the Lady Vols. Plus Kentucky will there. Kentucky women impressive. Tennessee men upset a top ten AUBURN team coached by Former Vol Coach, Bruce Pearl. What a game.

Shane Duke the person to see about Little league baseball in Gallatin area.

We honor athletics Clint Brown, two time all state footballer for Westmoreland. Following his father and his mother, outstanding athletics. Thank you Darryl Troutt for the information on honoring this great Westmoreland family.

Marie Adamson, Phillips Dickinson, former Portland great and Vol State star players, enjoying the fine play of the purple and white boys and girls teams.

Our Kentucky Kats upset by a good Arkansas team in a tremendous game. Kats in a heartbreaker by two. Yes Arkansas upset the Wildcats!

Rain at outdoor hockey game in Nashville Nissan Stadium. The game was a sellout. Record breaking crowds, over 38,000 for outdoor hockey, but Nashville loses game.

MTSU beats Western. Belmont over TSU. Tennessee Tech big win. Vandy women big SEC win. Tennessee men on fire in baseball. Vanderbilt started slow but will be a factor in SEC baseball.

Just read a story about hall of fame great Ted Williams. Many think best hitter ever. Ted was saying it was Tony Gwinn. Maybe some will remember his family in Gallatin. I invited Tony to come join us on air! He came, we went to Bennetts Sporting Goods where he signed autographs for as long as kids came. Tony Gwinn, a super hitter and super person. How many remember?? Yes a thrill for me! I had a Tony Gwinn baseball but gave it to a team to sell for team expenses. Great man, Tony Gwinn.

For two straight games Smallwood of the Portland Panthers hits one as the buzzer sounds for a thriller over Hillwood in tourney play. Beech and Gallatin fine basketball seasons. Both expected to be strong in baseball. Bob Prichett, local basketball expert, expects Tennessee and Kentucky men to go far in tourney play.

Heard from lifetime friend Gary Legette (Cherokee) and talked about real baseball rivalry in local play. He could remember every member of his team (the Diggers) in Portland. If you were from Gallatin how good was Byrons Bar B Que? Tell us about your youth team or even Sunday afternoon adult team for those fun games.

Thinking about how proud moms and dads who played sports, now with children who now coach or have coached. Portland with Ferguson, who played with Brewer on a great Panther team, is stepping up coaching two great wins for the Panther guys. Grizzle was her name as a college and high school great. Playing and coaching just like mom did. Frank Bartlett proud of his son. Great player, great coach. Remember the names Ramsey... John Robert so proud of daughter. A super high school coach. The late Russ Melvin coached youth sports many years. Now son Rusty leads Vol State basketball guys. Jan Van Bredakoff played at Vandy and coached the ABA pro basketball teams in Nashville. And so much more. How about the Satterfield name from Trousdale County. So many more father or mother with sons or daughters followed the coaching route. Do you remember Edgar Johnson and son Bill Johnson followed dad. Tell me if you remembered any families that gave us multi coaches.
