Looking for something more than social media
to market your business?

As a locally owned, small business, serving the community for over 30 years,

The Country Trader would like to be a part of helping you reach out to potential new customers!

Use social media as a free marketing tool, and use the Trader (in print and online) to reach hundreds of readers in the rural areas that do not have fast internet service or social media accounts or those who just prefer to pick up a paper and read it.

We are offering discounted advertising rates for ads 1/8 page or larger!

Your ads will be seen in print, on our website, and on our Facebook page where we can also place a link to your website or Facebook page.

Email gwen@countrytraderonline.com if you have questions or want to reserve your advertising space.

The Vradenburg family. Great people.

Hey, want to invite you to join us at HG hills in Gallatin. Tell them there that Bill Buntin sent you.

One of the all time great basketball players from the state of Tennessee, Joe Gaines, passed away. Only 71!! The smooth shooting six nine former pro would come to our area and play some games with us. A great Christian man loved by all who knew him. Joe Gaines will be missed by me and all who were blessed to have known him.

The new Liberty High School set to open this year. Already, without a game played there, has been voted to have the best athletic facility. It must be something.

Big Luke and big Mack took in WWF at Nissan. Big time wrestling. Huge crowds recently for WWF. Are there any local wrestling matches anymore?

Joseph Newgardner back racing in championship race back In Nashville.

Titans now in camp. Our Pro Soccer team red hot in Nashville. The gold looking fine.

August 18 for Middle School softball tryouts in Gallatin.

Anybody here remember the Sunday afternoon baseball games? Almost every community had a team. Let me know what you remember.

Bill Russell, of the great Boston Celtics, has passed away.

Whitehead, great Vols running back, out of the year.

The Fury, now headed for national in Indiana. Cheer these young ladies on to a national championship!

Prayers for our Kentucky brothers and sisters as the death toll from storms continues to rise.

Thank you for all the kind words about this sports column. So many comments.

Print Media & Advertising Advantages

Your business can pursue a number of avenues when it comes to promoting your products and services. Advertising can take the form of television or radio spots, placing billboards in high-traffic areas or using the Internet. You can also make use of print advertising, which offers its own set of advantages over other forms of media.

Unlimited Exposure

Print media such as newspapers and magazines allow for unlimited exposure. Unlike television or radio where advertising time is scheduled, prospects have potential exposure to print ads at virtually any time. A newspaper or magazine left on a coffee table can be viewed repeatedly and at the reader's discretion. The reader also has the opportunity to study the ad at his leisure and isn't limited to 30 or 60 seconds.

Non-Intrusive

Print ads are less intrusive than other forms of media. Radio and television ads often interrupt programming which can sometimes be an annoyance. With print media, the prospect has greater control as to when she views the ads, which eliminates interruptions.

Target Marketing

Certain forms of print media allow for a high level of target marketing. Magazines, for example, tend to be highly specialized, so ads can be developed to appeal to a specific readership. For example, companies that manufacture upscale clothing for men can target their ads to publications that appeal to professional males. A manufacturer of fishing gear can place ads in hunting and fishing publications.

Loyal Readership

Print media sources tend to have longstanding, loyal readership. People may read their copy more than once and may keep them for long periods of time. This frequent readership helps reinforce the advertiser's message or even develops an ongoing campaign that may cover multiple issues. Advertising in publications that have been around for many years can also lend credibility to the advertiser.

Position Flexibility

Advertisers usually have a choice as to where they place their ad in the publication. If the budget allows, the advertiser may choose the location that offers the highest visibility, such as the front cover or above the fold. Newspapers also offer the flexibility to choose the desired ad size, such as a full page or quarter-page.
