What a fantastic event the eclipse was! Many visitors to our area!

What an honor it is to be talking with you in this great paper, and so many of you say they read Let's Talk Sports..I do enjoy the kind things you say..it comes from the heart..To Gwen, our boss, she is special to work with.To Pat at Cover Ups Custom Quilting and Sewing of some of the most beautiful pillows and bedding anywhere. Pat works from Gallatin to cover your needs from almost anywhere. She has a delivery service and pick up possibilities...Cover Ups..long time supporter. We call this Let's Talk Sports because that is exactly what we want..tell us about your teams, your players, towns, and special games..The Trader is on line (www.countrytraderonline.com and on Facebook) so you can read us anywhere in the paper from Carthage to Scottsville, Franklin, Kentucky to Hendersonville, White House, Lebanon. We cover Cumberland University..Vol State..Vandy..Western..Middle...TSU and the Big Orange.....I tend to remember Doug Suddarth and his South Tunnel baseball bunch...big Jack McCullough and the Gallatin Sunday afternoon players...Wayne Baird and Portland hosting some super league and tournament adult basketball games with darn good players... like Lucian Borders and Roy Jackson..David Martin..Lafayette had Shelby Linville and Key Dillard... Scottsville would have talented independent teams. Was there a better player in any sport than June Bug from Hartsville..Odell Kirk from Hendersonville played out all..Portland had the Grove Brothers..White House with Allen Nash and company.... Burl White would bring the Goodlettsville and Madison men to play baseball and basketball....how about Carthage and the Nixon's???Lebanon had Bruce Sheen.... Paul Porter and a bunch more....Gallatin had Pat Web and big Homer Stewart and dozens of more..It was kind of side, but exciting as well when Rochelle softball and Fanns Market..Lafayette..Prock Brothers, Friendly Furniture of Franklin went the way of slow pitch softball..men and women's teams.. The Scout tells me some of the ladies teams were as good as they came....the night time basket ball turned those players over to the T V games as most any night there were games. Slow pitch put the Sunday baseball out of business..golf..fishing..even tennis took front stage..Now those same men and women follow and cheer for their children and grand kids in soccer and baseball....plenty of things to do in this area.

In opening games for local high school football...Wins for Gallatin,Wilson Central, Mt Juliet beats Glenclyff, Westmoreland and White House winners, a loss for Macon County. I am Bill Buntin...honored to be in front of you either reading the Trader or on your screen..love ya.....WDB
