Hello and Happy Holidays from the staff of your Country Trader and Let's Talk Sports! We service Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky with the paper and service the world on line at www.countrytraderonline.com and on Facebook! In football, Beech finishes the highest rated football team, despite Friendship Academy winning a state championship in their division, and Franklin Simpson being one of the best in Kentucky. Titans on the pro level have a real chance for one of their best years ever. Austin Peay best in years, but shut out in bowl selection. Of course the world knows by now, Tennessee has a new head football coach and I am sure assistants to follow. The Lady Vols had the number one recruiting class in America last year and as freshmen doing a super job. Coach Barnes' men for the Vols going fast with good play in the early season play. Vandy worst basketball start in years. Lipscomb, Western Kentucky, Belmont, MTSU, excellent play. Movie about last Vandy great Perry Wallace is out. There should be one done about the history making event about Gallatin Union High Bill Ligon and Gallatin High super star Eddie Sherlin. Ligon went on to Vandy, while Sherlin played in pro baseball and coaching. Speaking of coaching, Gallatin boy Rusty Melvin has his outstanding Vol State men on a long road trip. BTW, several of the players and our camera man, Howard, helped Bill Johnson and the members of Bethpage United Methodist church pass out lots of food in that area to people who could use a helping hand. Gallatin had their Christmas parade with several groups celebrating by marching and riding. Who will be the new head football coach at Hendersonville high? Clint Pamell, Goodpasture athletic director for years is one of the really good guys. Parents and officials think so also by buying him a new pick up truck. Lebanon added five to their hall of fame. All went on to play on the next level. Mt Juliet to add another new high school in that fast-growing city. Army edges Navy in that fantastic football battle played in the snow. And Oklahoma quarterback Mayfield wins Heisman Trophy. Titans in football, Preds in hockey, and Sounds in baseball. Yes, all professional teams doing this area proud, and now we are bidding for a pro soccer team and the building of a new stadium. We have a Triple A level team that play their soccer at the Sounds baseball park now. Westmoreland, Portland, Macon county, White House, now that football is over, gearing up for roundball. The voice of the Jackets took a long ride to Clarkrange the home of super boys and girls basketball...nice ride from Hartsville..Pickett county also on their schedule. From Sparta on to the east some fine high school basketball is played girls and boys teams. Could Austin Peay lose their head coach? Hang on to him Austin Peay fans...you have a winner. Best season in many, many years. Gallatin super young, baseball's future star, Miles Wanstrath, grandfather played on record setting basketball team with a guy named Fly. Also former Vol State coach, Howard Jackson, was a future NBA star to be except for a horrible accident while working one summer for TVA...Bob Pritchett keeps us informed on Franklin Simpson and Allen County Kentucky and their excellent teams. Pritchett grandson, Kyler, trying to overcome injuries. Franklin Simpson lost a thriller against one of the better Kentucky teams this past weekend. Purple Panthers of Portland still celebrating a state title for their young ladies. Beech High named most talented high school team from last season by Nashville media. Pat, at Cover Ups, still doing the most beautiful pillows and converletts. Has been our top sponsor for years. You should see the house for Christmas! Call or e mail Gwen to get your ads in the Trader or place your ad on our new web site www.countrytraderonline.com! Buying..Trading..Selling..The Country Trader is the place to be! Gwen is the person to see or call in Gallatin. We cover all the area and on line. Happy Seasons Greetings to all and thanks for the kind words about Let's Talk Sports..I am Billbuntin...loving you all..Merry Christmas!
