Whether you want to sell something or promote your business, The Country Trader will work for you! Let's Talk Sports is brought to you by Pat, the owner and operator of Cover Ups Custom Sewing. Custom pillows, bed spreads, sewing of any kind. She has offices in Gallatin but does pick up and delivery service. She is the best! Now to more sports....Saw on-line stories about one of the great Portland basketball teams that won twenty three games one year, 1959. Lebanon beat Gallatin boys recently, two fine teams. Yes football fans, Jennings is back at Tennessee, Vandy men and women having hard times, Vol State fighting some of the best in the country..men and women. Coach Rusty Melvin and women's coach, former Globetrotter great Coach Key work so hard. Coach Johnny Lynne and Coach Hunt invite you to catch the baseball and softball at Vol State. Cumberland Woody Hunt talking about retiring. Belmont, Lipscomb, MTSU, Western... all great places to catch a basketball..men and women. Our Preds are smoking hot hockey. Yes, rumor's true, Fisher has come out of retirement for Preds. Yea!!..Bob Pritchett tells about Franklin Simpson Kentucky High in an injury slump...could carry over into baseball season on some of the stars. Gallatin baseball's getting heavy duty from Coach Mark Wilson from working out to holding clinics for young kids. Macon County still ripping the nets...White House working hard as Westmoreland, Scottsville cranking up for softball.....Portland basketball teams working hard. Lebanon, Wilson Central, Friendship, and of course Mt Juliet all loaded with talent. Beech fine record and excellent talent, Station Camp and Hendersonville young. Pope John Paul could have big time soccer and baseball success. White House boys and girls with talent moving in monthly. Sumner County, Wilson County continues to grow and more talent. Little League baseball starts soon in most areas. Sounds and Hot Rods furnish us affordable pro baseball. We will watch stock car and drag strips at several places. Trousdale County will be ready for Spring football practice soon and the Cheese will keep an eye on them. Hendersonville looks to build more fields. So much more sports. If you want to talk about your town, team or players, just let us know...I am Bill Buntin with Let's Talk Sports right here in the Country Trader. We cover lots of middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky and want to hear from you. Thanks all from Gwen, Bill and Pat...your team at Let's Talk Sports. Tennessee Tech, Austin Peay, Tennessee State, Belmont, all winners this past week..and according to Bob Pritchett, yet another Franklin Simpson Kentucky player injured. Four now slowed on team instead of three. Big Hunting and Fishing show at Wilson County Expo was a bigger success than imagined. Again, thanks for all the calls and e mails! Four huge games this weekend for Vol State. Former Panther man and huge supporter will not run again as Portland mayor. He help brother George and Lloyd Brown as the manager on my Panther team. The late James Gale kept our score book and along with John McKinney. Terry Eakes. We're stars on the first American Legion baseball team for Sumner County giving fifteen year old plus young Mena team and place to play. With all the e mail and calls we could go on and on, but we will catch up more next week..The Country Trader, a place to take you back in time and some current sports happenings and with Gwen at the paper places to trade, sell or buy most any product you might need.
