*Nothing can make a home or business look better than a custom pillow. We also do spreads and any kind of sewing.
Ask for Pat!*

Wow, what a sports week since we last talked. Hello... Bill Buntin for Gwen McReynolds and the staff of the Country Trader. Two fantastic pro play off games in pro football. The way both games ended could not have been more exciting if a Hollywood writer had written them. The Super Bowl now first week in February. Speaking of Hollywood, our Eddie Sherlin will now get his movie. The Union vs Gallatin basketball games from long ago will go to the big screen finally. Gwen is always ready to help you with your business or event advertising needs in the Country Trader. You can view the paper and submit your classifieds anytime at www.countrytraderonline.com. Pat has an opening time to do any custom sewing. From pillows, spreads, custom sewing by a pro. Her shop is in Gallatin but she covers the entire area and will pick up and deliver. Weather has been brutal lately and baseball, track, softball teams working inside trying to get ready. Even the adult golf folks itching to hit the little white ball. Miles Wanstrath has fishing gear lined up ready to head to Tommy and Billy's place where he catches lot of bass. Miles turns them all loose. Just loves the sport of fishing. Met the new head Gallatin football coach, Chad Watson, nice guy. Now pressured to win in Green Wave Country. Many other coaching changes. Speaking of coaches, Rusty Melvin and Vol State men played the heck out of the top two basketball teams in Tennessee before coming home with two close losses, but feeling good about the team that lost the nations leading scorer from last year. Beech, Station Camp, Mt Juliet High Schools fine teams with great records. Also, Portland, White House, Lebanon, Macon County, Allen County, Kentucky. Just let us know what is happening. Prichett keeps us up on the great Franklin Simpson teams, including talented grandsons getting healthy. Cumberland University in Lebanon cracking up for another national baseball run. Hendersonville loaded with men and women in their athletic pipeline. Carthage... thanks for the calls. Same to Gordonsville volleyball. The Preds are up and down. The Sounds of Nashville and Bowling Green Hot Rods pro baseball will head for spring training soon. NASCAR racing just might return to the area real soon. We are proud of Lipscomb and Belmont basketball and baseball. Just like national power Vanderbilt baseball. Portland native, Robert Dorris, active with every Vandy baseball game. Have not heard from the Trousdale County. Three sport, former star, and radio voice, The Cheese itching to hit the links. Have been running and need to get more news from former baseball star John McKinney. And my friend Barry Wells known to many as Bama, should be glowing with pride about basketball in Alabama. The Vols had to fight hard to beat the Tide and now the Vols are the country's top team. Speaking of the Tennessee teams, Tee Martin returns to the hill. He lead the Vols as a quarterback. Saw former Gallatin coach, and East High superguy, Jerry Vradenberg....fantastic man. Come on Cherokee, you're a White House supporter. Keep us up on happenings. Plenty of sports. We cover middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky, so let us know. We will cover you here in the paper and countrytraderonline.com. I am Bill Buntin thanks for being here for me.
