Rain causing some delays with our local sports, even Miles Wanstrath and his fishing trips. Speaking of Miles, brother Luke just threw a major thirteen birthday party. Good food and plenty of games. Dan Barber says grandson injured but still playing tough for Gallatin high baseball. Vol state and Cumberland teams outside fighting the weather but squeezing in games. Our pro team, the Nashville Sounds taking on parent team in Texas. Hot Rods ready to go in Bowling Green. Bob Prichett spent time filing taxes returns....looking out for injured grandson Kyler, the Franklin, Kentucky super athletic youngster. Surgery or not...we will let you know. Tennessee Vols and Kentucky with thousands of fans in our area hold their breaths as the teams continued to win hard fought games. Kentucky women win. Big Orange women out. What will take place on the coaching there??? Vandy makes men's basketball coaching move. Good guy gone. Vanderbilt baseball still tops in the nation. Big crowds turned out for SEC tourney. Now experts say the NFL draft will draw over two hundred thousand here. Preds hockey up and down. Fighting for spot in playoff. Talked with the owner of WHIN radio, the powerful AM and FM radio, that gives great support to all sports in our area. So proud of Belmont. Narrow loss to fine team. Belmont women also the dance. Lipscomb men loss. Wanna talk sports? Just drop in to Plaza Barber Shop in Gallatin or just see the Ole Coach and Rusty just down the the street. They know sports. And coming soon to the Palace, great comedy show with athlete turned Deputy Sheriff. Hello Carthage, Scottsville, Portland, especially Tommy Crafton, super supporter for Vandy and the Panthers. Thanks for calling. I am Bill Buntin

Print Media & Advertising Advantages

Your business can pursue a number of avenues when it comes to promoting your products and services. Advertising can take the form of television or radio spots, placing billboards in high-traffic areas or using the Internet. You can also make use of print advertising, which offers its own set of advantages over other forms of media.

Unlimited Exposure

Print media such as newspapers and magazines allow for unlimited exposure. Unlike television or radio where advertising time is scheduled, prospects have potential exposure to print ads at virtually any time. A newspaper or magazine left on a coffee table can be viewed repeatedly and at the reader's discretion. The reader also has the opportunity to study the ad at his leisure and isn't limited to 30 or 60 seconds.

Non-Intrusive

Print ads are less intrusive than other forms of media. Radio and television ads often interrupt programming which can sometimes be an annoyance. With print media, the prospect has greater control as to when she views the ads, which eliminates interruptions.

Target Marketing

Certain forms of print media allow for a high level of target marketing. Magazines, for example, tend to be highly specialized, so ads can be developed to appeal to a specific readership. For example, companies that manufacture upscale clothing for men can target their ads to publications that appeal to professional males. A manufacturer of fishing gear can place ads in hunting and fishing publications.

Loyal Readership

Print media sources tend to have longstanding, loyal readership. People may read their copy more than once and may keep them for long periods of time. This frequent readership helps reinforce the advertiser's message or even develops an ongoing campaign that may cover multiple issues. Advertising in publications that have been around for many years can also lend credibility to the advertiser.

Position Flexibility

Advertisers usually have a choice as to where they place their ad in the publication. If the budget allows, the advertiser may choose the location that offers the highest visibility, such as the front cover or above the fold. Newspapers also offer the flexibility to choose the desired ad size, such as a full page or quarter-page.
