Lets Talk Sports with Bill Buntin

Sponsored by
COVERUPS CUSTOM QUILTING • 615-230-8433

Nothing can make a home or business look better than a custom pillow. We also do spreads and any kind of sewing. Ask for Pat!

Hello this is Bill Buntin for Let's Talk Sports. You can keep up with family and friends right here in the Country Trader and on line as well we reach thousands in middle Tennessee and southern Kentucky (plus around the world on line). If you have items for sale, trade or looking for something to buy, you can place your ad online at www.countrytraderonline.com. Gwen can help you with your business or event advertising! Give her a call. Our sports section is sponsored by Pat, owner of Coverups Custom Sewing. She does pillows, custom spreads, coverlets, and almost any kind of custom sewing. Pat has her shop in Gallatin, but serves all areas with pick up and delivery. Now I am Bill Buntin. Chances are I have broadcast games in your town and for your teams in the past. I love sports and would be happy to talk here if you will send us any information to billbuntin007@ivom.com. The White County area just had a huge day for Kelly Jolley Harper, new head Lady Vols coach. Big news... now MTSU, Vandy, and Tennessee can sell alcohol on game day. I am not sure I have seen a more exciting game than Duke and Vandy men in the super regions. A young 18 year old thrower twirled a no hitter on a great Duke team. Striking out eighteen I believe. The SEC had several teams trying to get to the national tourney in Omaha. Many coaching and players moves. Golden State Warriors shocked in NBA finals. Saw a mention of former Gallatin star, Ray Oldham, who was great at MTSU and in the NFL. Scottie Cline, former Portland super player, now an umpire working the college World Series. Yes, he had done it before. Old friend, Greg Ruff, who broadcast Trevecca sports for years, now gets more honors. Speaking of old friends, George Plaster has returned to hosting a sports talk show on WSM AM 650. Thanks for that information from radio super star, Buddy Sadler, who lives here. The Old Kitty League, for those who loved pure amateur adult sport now have returned with a team playing out of Simpson County, Kentucky according to Bob Prichett. Miles Wanstrath and team-mates of post 17 baseball head for the Upperman area and on to McMinnville next game. Dan Barber has a grandson, Ethan, who is a Gallatin High star. Young master Huddleston is the real deal fielding and hitting. Fishing is great for Miles when he visits Tommy Crafton best Portland. Miles always releases the Bass back to the water. Lots and lots of action in baseball in White House, Hartsville, Smith county, and of course the great programs in Wilson county. Our best to friend and little director, T C Carter of Gallatin. Send some good wishes his way. Just catch me on line to send your town or teams activity. Let's Talk Sports cares about our youth and adults. Stay in touch and enjoy your games.

Print Media & Advertising Advantages

Your business can pursue a number of avenues when it comes to promoting your products and services. Advertising can take the form of television or radio spots, placing billboards in high-traffic areas or using the Internet. You can also make use of print advertising, which offers its own set of advantages over other forms of media.

Unlimited Exposure

Print media such as newspapers and magazines allow for unlimited exposure. Unlike television or radio where advertising time is scheduled, prospects have potential exposure to print ads at virtually any time. A newspaper or magazine left on a coffee table can be viewed repeatedly and at the reader's discretion. The reader also has the opportunity to study the ad at his leisure and isn't limited to 30 or 60 seconds.

Non-Intrusive

Print ads are less intrusive than other forms of media. Radio and television ads often interrupt programming which can sometimes be an annoyance. With print media, the prospect has greater control as to when she views the ads, which eliminates interruptions.

Target Marketing

Certain forms of print media allow for a high level of target marketing. Magazines, for example, tend to be highly specialized, so ads can be developed to appeal to a specific readership. For example, companies that manufacture upscale clothing for men can target their ads to publications that appeal to professional males. A manufacturer of fishing gear can place ads in hunting and fishing publications.

Loyal Readership

Print media sources tend to have longstanding, loyal readership. People may read their copy more than once and may keep them for long periods of time. This frequent readership helps reinforce the advertiser's message or even develops an ongoing campaign that may cover multiple issues. Advertising in publications that have been around for many years can also lend credibility to the advertiser.

Position Flexibility

Advertisers usually have a choice as to where they place their ad in the publication. If the budget allows, the advertiser may choose the location that offers the highest visibility, such as the front cover or above the fold. Newspapers also offer the flexibility to choose the desired ad size, such as a full page or quarter-page.
