Congratulations to the teams and individuals for big wins... even a national title for Dewayne Sherlin and his baseball bunch. Ethan Huddleston and Dylan Fields played with that great cross hits bunch. Miles Wanstrath on the Post 17 baseball team finished fourth in State Legion play. Post 17 in Gallatin did a great job of hosting in brutal weather. School starting means football, softball, and Fall practice at Gallatin High and others in Simpson and Allen County Kentucky. Powerhouse Mt Juliet, loaded White House, Station Camp and Beech, Trousdale loaded with talent. So is Wilson Central. Look out for Macon County and Westmoreland. Heritage, Hendersonville lots of Fall talent. Eddie Sherlin, one of the most famous of talent, had his son Brian out to hit local pro golf tour. Again Allie Fulcher, we are proud of your new head coaching job at Trevecca. Dewayne Alexander keeps adding to Tennessee Tech staff, including his son, who is a fine player. Again happy for Pam and Gerald Gregory and grandson who can play for real. Hot Rods, pro team in Bowling Green, and Sounds in Nashville to close out their pro baseball season. Stock car racing again this week in Nashville. Gallatin ace got Station Camp to play in X Games. Coach Greg Harper looks for greatness this year for Green Wave soccer. Steve Tucker to be honored for killing world record buck in 2016....now officially approved. Jaden Tstherth is the new Middle Tennessee hockey Coach. If you have players, teams, or games to talk about give us a call or billbuntin007@icloud.com. I am Bill Buntin give us a shout and we will pass it along here in the Country Trader and on line. Thanks for being here with us. BB
