"I can't afford to advertise"

In a time when our businesses are trying to recover from weeks of being closed, it's hard to think about spending money on advertising. Many turn to social media alone to market their business and some depend on word of mouth referrals.

But what about the hundreds of potential customers who do not shop online or search social media for an item or service they need? They want to pick up a paper and read it and keep it for future reference.

The Country Trader showcases your business in front of thousands of potential buyers each week

ONLINE & IN PRINT at affordable prices.

Print ads reinforce your online advertising and we encourage our readers to 'shop local'.

So, how do you get new customers back in your store?

ADVERTISE aggressively with great offers, coupons, and expanded service! Give buyers incentive to spend their money with you!

The question is not "Can you afford to advertise?" The question is "Can you afford not to?"

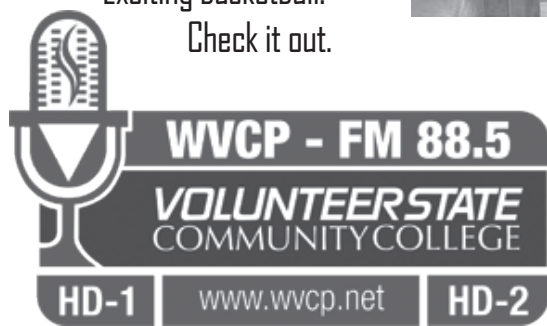

We are discounting our advertising rates for new customers during the month of June to help you get your business back on track.

Your ads will be seen in print, on our website, and on our Facebook page.

Email gwen@countrytraderonline.com for information and to reserve your space.

So many write-ups, TV shows, general conversations about race relationships. Well, in sports it seemed natural to me to get the best players no matter to race. After high school and college I had played against only one non white player, Austin Peay. Then I was drafted and quickly put on a team in Georgia where we had African Americans and played against them. In the first of February I was sent overseas. Within two days an African American Sargent came and we took the team bus to the closest gym. We had five-black players and a black coach. Great team, super players, and never a mention of black or white....only can you play?!!! In those days I could. We had a great team finishing second in the country. Fast forward to the next season...many new players...same mix of black and white on our team...and we were good. Lots of wins, never an issue of race. Fast forward to years later as softball became big here in the states. Starting back it was almost black teams and white teams...good players on all teams. As I became friends with many of the players in the league, we decided to put together a traveling team to play the best, so if you could play, black or white, we were together winning state titles many tourneys. Same thing in basketball...race was not an issue.

To finishing this column on a sad note with the black and white issues. One of my best friends ever was shot and killed. A black man. I was the only white man to be a pallbearer. It hurt to lose such a friend and it was nice that I was asked to be in the official burial party. I have worked at a school with a mostly black student body. So many other stories of how all races can be friends, work together, be in social and student groups together.

So, I have no idea how many will see this but for the sake of God, live on this planet and forget the race talk. Think it over. We only get one chance. All people can be together. Work, live, love each other. I have been there. I Know!!!
