Businesses are open but some of you still are struggling to get back to normal, so it is crucial for you to let everyone know the status of your business.... your hours, how you are implementing social distancing, what kind of specials are you offering your customers, etc.

As a locally owned, small business, The Country Trader would like to be a part of helping you reach out to regular and potential new customers. We're still in this together and it is important to support each another's businesses during this recovery period. Use social media as a free marketing tool, and use the Trader (in print and online) to reach hundreds of readers in the rural areas that do not have fast internet service or social media accounts.

We are offering discounted advertising rates til the end of the year to help you get your business back on track. Your ads will be seen in print, on our website, and on our Facebook page where we can also place a link to your website or Facebook page. Email gwen@countrytraderonline.com if you have questions or want to reserve your advertising space. Check out our website www.countrytraderonline.com and our Facebook page. Big overtime win for Titans... Colts are next!!!! The Tennessee Volunteers, The Kentucky Wildcats, all go down. Most of our high school teams go down except Beech. The Trousdale County Yellow Jackets. Prichett tells me Franklin Simpson now turns to basketball. Same for Scottsville/Allen County. The Gallatin Green Wave basketball looks good. The Panthers of Portland and Heritage and White House feels good about basketball. Watch and listen to Station Camp girls now that head coach Kendrick is heading up things. Our best to all star coach on high school and college level, Larry Joe Inman, is better. Watch Macon County guys, Westmoreland girls. Will let you know about Hendersonville, East Robertson, Pope John, Friendship Christian. Excited to talk about Rusty Melvin and talented Vol State men. Tennessee men and women projected as top ten nationally. So is Kentucky and Western Kentucky loaded. It's rival time in college and play off time in Tennessee high school football. Hockey in January and big time racing comes to Nashville. Joseph Newgarden is heading things up. There will be lots of coaching changes in high school., college and pro ranks. Get your golf clubs out and let Eddie Sherlin help you, and Lucian Borders could tell you folks who like tennis a thing or two. Remember if you want to sell or trade some items submit your ad on our website anytime! Thanks for the kind words. I am a local guy, not some guy from out of town who wants your time. Again I am Bill Buntin loving to talk sports with you. billbuntin007@icloud.com

WHY PRINT ADVERTISING WORKS FOR YOU.

LET THE TRADER HELP YOU MARKET YOUR BUSINESS THIS HOLIDAY SEASON!

Print Advertising reinforces your social media, website, radio and television advertising and our readers will keep it for future reference.

It also reaches customers who are without internet access or don't use social media.

Print Media & Advertising Advantages

Your business can pursue a number of avenues when it comes to promoting your products and services. Advertising can take the form of television or radio spots, placing billboards in high-traffic areas or using the Internet. You can also make use of print advertising, which offers its own set of advantages over other forms of media.

Unlimited Exposure

Print media such as newspapers and magazines allow for unlimited exposure. Unlike television or radio where advertising time is scheduled, prospects have potential exposure to print ads at virtually any time. A newspaper or magazine left on a coffee table can be viewed repeatedly and at the reader's discretion. The reader also has the opportunity to study the ad at his leisure and isn't limited to 30 or 60 seconds.

Non-Intrusive

Print ads are less intrusive than other forms of media. Radio and television ads often interrupt programming which can sometimes be an annoyance. With print media, the prospect has greater control as to when she views the ads, which eliminates interruptions.

Target Marketing

Certain forms of print media allow for a high level of target marketing. Magazines, for example, tend to be highly specialized, so ads can be developed to appeal to a specific readership. For example, companies that manufacture upscale clothing for men can target their ads to publications that appeal to professional males. A manufacturer of fishing gear can place ads in hunting and fishing publications.

Loyal Readership

Print media sources tend to have longstanding, loyal readership. People may read their copy more than once and may keep them for long periods of time. This frequent readership helps reinforce the advertiser's message or even develops an ongoing campaign that may cover multiple issues. Advertising in publications that have been around for many years can also lend credibility to the advertiser.

Position Flexibility

Advertisers usually have a choice as to where they place their ad in the publication. If the budget allows, the advertiser may choose the location that offers the highest visibility, such as the front cover or above the fold. Newspapers also offer the flexibility to choose the desired ad size, such as a full page or quarter-page.
