Nothing can make a home or business look better than a custom pillow. We also do spreads and any kind of sewing. Ask for Pat!

Hello and welcome to Let's Talk Sports. I am Bill Buntin for the Country Trader and right here on line at www.countrytraderonline.com. Gwen, our Manager, will help you with your ads. Simply email gwen@countrytraderonline.com with questions or place your ad on the website.

The sponsor for all this time is Pat, owner and talent at Cover Ups Custom sewing. Coverletts, bedspreads, custom pillows... any type of sewing... see or call Pat at Cover Ups of Gallatin. She offers pickup and delivery.

Now in this crazy mixed up time we will tell you if you have information about a team just let us know. We will be happy to tell our readers about players, games, teams, even fans. Super Bowl is over, but if you still want some football, then follow Cumberland of Lebanon or Dewayne Alexander of Tennessee Tech. Yep football in the Spring. The virus has caused teams like Western Kentucky to change when and where they will play and how many can attend. That makes your local radio and cable so important to keep up with your favorite. Coach Rusty Melvin and the Volunteer State Pioneers could not play basketball until recently. Their games carried on line so fans could follow. North Central offers on line coverage for Allen County, Macon County, Trousdale County and more. White House does a great job getting the sports out to their fans thru in-house coverage. Portland has radio coverage, so does Gallatin with WHIN there for the games. You can catch pro hockey for our fine Preds. Great pro coverage. Most of the area can follow the Big Orange men and women on radio and TV thru the SEC sports network. Speaking of Tennessee, both the men and women basketball teams are nationally ranked. Belmont right here in Middle Tennessee had the best win/loss record in the nation, yep in the nation. Western Ky always great men and women basketball. Cumberland and Trevecca locally fight hard. Vol State baseball and softball already trying to get some work in. Vanderbilt, the nations powerhouse, looks great again according to my inside source, Portland native, Bob Dorris. Gallatin High expected to be a powerhouse and my goodness you have got to see the fields and all the work to make it look great, and the softball field on campus is so cool. We are blessed with Beech, Station Camp, Hendersonville, Pope John Paul all behind their teams. Portland tremendous field. Hendersonville parks give excellent areas to play. Btw, rumors have Bubba Perry bringing back the national super slow pitch big boys for a nationally known tourney right here in Sumner County. Fishing expected to be great at our lakes and river. Eddie Sherlin tells us the golf courses will be waiting on you. Big time pro races return to the Super Speedway in Wilson County. Pro baseball returns to Bowling Green and of course at the Sounds stadium in downtown Nashville. If you have local sports news let us know. The Country Trader, locally owned, will be happy to hear about players teams tourneys. We cover Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky. So any sports activities simply let us know. Thanks for being with us. For Gwen, our mgr., Pat our sponsor, this is Bill Buntin looking forward to hearing from you to talk sports!!!!

Print Media & Advertising Advantages

Your business can pursue a number of avenues when it comes to promoting your products and services. Advertising can take the form of television or radio spots, placing billboards in high-traffic areas or using the Internet. You can also make use of print advertising, which offers its own set of advantages over other forms of media.

Unlimited Exposure

Print media such as newspapers and magazines allow for unlimited exposure. Unlike television or radio where advertising time is scheduled, prospects have potential exposure to print ads at virtually any time. A newspaper or magazine left on a coffee table can be viewed repeatedly and at the reader's discretion. The reader also has the opportunity to study the ad at his leisure and isn't limited to 30 or 60 seconds.

Non-Intrusive

Print ads are less intrusive than other forms of media. Radio and television ads often interrupt programming which can sometimes be an annoyance. With print media, the prospect has greater control as to when she views the ads, which eliminates interruptions.

Target Marketing

Certain forms of print media allow for a high level of target marketing. Magazines, for example, tend to be highly specialized, so ads can be developed to appeal to a specific readership. For example, companies that manufacture upscale clothing for men can target their ads to publications that appeal to professional males. A manufacturer of fishing gear can place ads in hunting and fishing publications.

Loyal Readership

Print media sources tend to have longstanding, loyal readership. People may read their copy more than once and may keep them for long periods of time. This frequent readership helps reinforce the advertiser's message or even develops an ongoing campaign that may cover multiple issues. Advertising in publications that have been around for many years can also lend credibility to the advertiser.

Position Flexibility

Advertisers usually have a choice as to where they place their ad in the publication. If the budget allows, the advertiser may choose the location that offers the highest visibility, such as the front cover or above the fold. Newspapers also offer the flexibility to choose the desired ad size, such as a full page or quarter-page.
